The screenshot shows a Facebook interface. At the top is the Facebook logo and a search bar. Below the logo is a button labeled "Friends on Chat". The main content area displays three posts:

- Boku Erasmus: A post about an international meeting for outgoing students. The text reads: "Apfelstrudel goes international - BOKU outgoings meets incomings. Dear Incoming Students! Do you want to have an incredible austrian dinner and help future outgoing students from BOKU at the same time just by talking about your homecountry and university??? This evening will be on Wednesday, 9th of May and starts at 19h. IF YOU WANT TO COME, PLEASE MAIL until tomorrow 12 h TO: h12000_lucile_pineau@boku.ac.at ...". Below the text are links for "See More" and "See Translation", and interaction options: "Like · Comment · Follow Post · May 2 at 3:24pm".
- Michael Ausserhofer: A post about an open air concert at prater fields. The text reads: "Don't know if you knew, but on May 1th there's this open air concert at prater fields. It's for free and with the nice weather probably there will be massive amounts of people. It starts officially at 13:00 but I'm planning to go there around 15ish. Anybody feel like joining?". Below the text are interaction options: "Like · Comment · Follow Post · April 29 at 10:36pm". Below this post is a summary of likes and comments: "5 people like this." and "View all 7 comments". There are two comments visible:
 - Maiju Kosunen: "lets go already!!" (May 1 at 10:59am · Like)
 - Michael Ausserhofer: "OK, here's my plan: - Meeting point is my flat at 3, adress is 'Bergsteiggasse 7 Stiege 2 Door Nr 15 'Dr. Ponhold' to drink something on my balcony ...". Below the comment are links for "See More" and interaction options: "May 1 at 12:08pm · Like".
